Sri Subrahmanya - Valli – Devasena Thiru Kalyanam

The Skanda Sashti is celebrated during the waxing moon period in the Hindu lunar month of Aippasi or Aswin (October-November). Soora Samharam occurs on the day when Lord Muruga or Skanda killed a demon called Soora Padman who was torturing all Devas. Lord Indra offers his daughter to Lord Subrahmanya as a gift for helping the Devas. This is celebrated as Skanda Sashti as a symbol of perpetual destruction of evil by God.
