

Gita Jayanthi-Saturday 7th December 2019

The Bhagavadgita is the greatest spiritual scripture that the world has ever known. In this book, Lord Krishna describes the science of self-realization and the exact process by which a human being can establish their eternal relationship with God. Bhagavadgita is a 700 verse Sanskrit text and considered as the most important and influential Hindu scripture for its philosophical, practical, political, psychological and spiritual value.

Gita Jayanti is an annual celebration to commemorate the day when Lord Krishna rendered his philosophical teachings

AHT will be celebrating this auspicious occasion by performing the Gita Havan and Sampurna Bhagavadgita Parayan at 10am
