ARTICLE V: MANAGEMENT

The overall management of the Corporation shall be vested in BoD and EC as described in the bylaws.

Section 5.1 General Body of Trustees: Composition and Term

Trustee:

Those devotees who donate a minimum set amount (see Appendix A: Payment/Donation Requirement for Various Memberships) to the corporation within a stipulated duration are considered Trustees. Both the amount and the payment terms are determined by General Body of Trustees from time to time.

- There is no limit on number of such Trustees
- This trustee role is an individual role. The rights do not extend to spouse or any other family members. Powers and responsibilities of Trustees are not transferable.
- Minors are encouraged to become trustees; however for such cases, the parents/guardians shall bear the powers (including voting rights) and responsibilities until they turn 18 years old.
- Qualification for becoming a Trustee:
 - i. Should be recommended by at least two other current Trustees. However such a recommendation is not required for a spouse or a child of the existing trustee.
 - ii. Honors the required financial commitment at the time of enrolment or makes the due payments on time –Also known as “A Trustee in good standing”
 - iii. No public record of involvement in anti-social and or criminal activities.

A trustee can direct his/her trustee payments, either full or partial, towards an approved capital project. However, such directed donations must be approved by the BoD prior to making the payment.

Any donor who donates the required amount towards an approved capital project may request trusteeship. However, the donor must declare the intent of becoming a trustee prior to making such donations and obtain approval from the BoD.

Trustees intending to resign may do so by providing a written letter of resignation. The Board Secretary shall remove the resigned Trustee’s name from the list of Trustees after notifying him/her in writing.

All Trustees, and their registered spouses, are considered as life members of the general assembly. Trustees may request their contributions be treated as a private matter to the extent permissible by law.

All the rights, powers, duties and responsibilities relative to the management and control of the Corporation’s property and affairs are vested in the Board of Trustees for the benefit of Corporation.

Section 5.1.1 Meetings and Quorum – Board of Trustees:

Trustees in good standing may give a proxy to another Trustee in good standing for each Board of Trustee meeting in writing through email or on forms prescribed by the Board Secretary from time to time.

The quorum shall consist of one third of the Board of Trustees (either attending in person or by proxy) and shall be certified by the Secretary of the Board. If quorum is not met, the Board meeting shall be adjourned for a minimum of 30 minutes and can be reconvened after 30 minutes. The quorum for the second called meeting shall be a minimum of 1/5th of the total number of Trustees (either attending in person or by proxy). If the quorum is not met even in the second meeting, the meeting shall be conducted and the decisions taken in the meeting shall be sent to the Board of Trustees for further approvals. A minimum 3 days and a maximum of 5 days shall be provided to the Board of Trustees to review the decisions taken in the second meeting and provide their vote in favor or against such decisions. A one-third vote in favor (including the votes from the second meeting) shall be considered as the approval of such decisions made in the second meeting. Voting shall be obtained via electronic media (emails, online surveys) and the responses are documented by the Secretary of the Board of Directors.

Any items that require voting/approval from trustees shall be published to the trustees at least 5 days before the upcoming trustee meeting in which the item for discussion and approval will be presented.

Section 5.2 Board of Directors of the Trustees (BoD):

General Body of Trustees shall elect/appoint a nine-member Board of Directors comprised of individuals as illustrated elsewhere in this article. This BoD shall be their representative for the management of the corporation. General Body of Trustees entrusts all their powers to the Board of Directors as their representative, except in cases where it is explicitly restricted.

General Body of Trustees shall have authority to overrule and reverse any of the decisions made by Board of Directors with a two third majority of the attendees (including Proxies) at the GBT meeting. General Body of Trustees may remove any of the Board of Directors for proper cause with two third majority votes, and then may elect/appoint a replacement member of BoD with majority of the vote, which is 51% of the total number of trustees.

Section 5.2.1: Composition of BoD

Board of Directors (here after known as BoD) shall consist of nine members. Seven of the nine members shall be elected, one is the elected President of the Executive Committee, and one member nominated by the BOD Chair and approved by the BOD with a simple majority.

The composition of the 9 members is as follows:

1. Chairperson – elected by GBT
2. BoD member – elected by GBT
3. BoD member – elected by GBT
4. BoD Member – elected by GBT

5. BoD Member – elected by GBT
6. BoD Member – elected by GBT
7. BoD Member – elected by GBT
8. Current President of the Executive committee
9. A member of the general community or a life member – nominated by the Chairman and approved by the BoD.

The Chairperson and six BoD members (a total of seven) will be elected from the eligible permanent members of GBT by all the voting members of GBT. In addition to the Chairperson, a Vice-Chairperson and a Secretary shall be elected or selected from the six elected members of the Board of Directors by the BoD members within two weeks of BoD election results. The ninth member of the BoD shall be a person in the general community with a sincere interest in and potential benefit to Austin Hindu Temple and its purpose.

The ninth member may become a Trustee during his/her term of service and still complete their term as a ninth member. In case a ninth member is not nominated from the general community the Board may nominate a trustee or a life member in good standing. Such nomination must be approved by the Board of Trustees with a simple majority.

All Board of Directors shall reside within the following 4 counties surrounding Austin: Travis, Williamson, Hays, and Bastrop. A board member whose primary residence is moved outside the 4 counties shall be considered as resigned with a resignation effective 15 days from such move.

Section 5.2.2: BoD Election and Term Limits

See Section 6.25 and Section 6.26 for Term Limits and Elections of BoD members, respectively.

Section 5.2.3: Powers and Duties of the BoD

The BoD shall be responsible for implementing the policies, directives, and guidelines set by the BoT. The BoD shall initiate policies and procedures of AHTCC and shall obtain approvals of such policies from BoT and in accordance with the quorum requirements set in Section 5.1.1.

BOD reviews AHTCC income sources and expenses and recommend changes to improve finances and help the financial health of the temple. Also, the BOD monitors the operations of the corporation and provides feedback and suggestions to the executive committee to protect the interests of the temple.

The powers exist in the Board of Directors as a group and not in an individual. The BoD has a duty to exercise reasonable care and prudence in managing the affairs of the Corporation. The BoD may make rules for the conduct of its own. Any such rules inconsistent with these Bylaws and the Articles of Incorporation shall not be valid. It is the responsibility of the Chairman of BoD to ensure the Bylaws are followed in the execution of the respective duties and responsibilities by BoD members.

The BoD will focus on the following areas: Fund raising, long-term vision, governance and compliance of AHTCC. In particular, they are responsible to:

- Drive long range planning process and develop a rolling five-year roadmap – The chairman of the BOD will present the long range planning and the rolling roadmap to BOT every 1st quarter of the calendar year
- Organize fund-raising activities – planning and execution through the Fund Raising Committee.
- Approve of capital projects limited to a stipulated maximum of $50,000. Any projects that require more than $50,000 need to be approved by the BoD and presented to General Body of Trustee (GBT) at their assembly for their approval. A project that costs more than $50,000 cannot be split into smaller projects costing less than $50,000 to get such approvals.
- Review and Recommend Architectural aspects including site development and structural changes and present to Board of Trustees for approvals. Any changes to site and structures will have to be approved by the GBT and in accordance with the quorum requirements set in Section 5.1.1. Any addition or modification to the religious structures and fixed deities will have to be approved by at least 51% of the trustees.
- Review and Approve yearly operating plan and budgets (developed by EC). Develop yearly capital budget plan and obtain approvals by GBT.
- Ensure annual audit and financial record compliance
- Obtain Approvals from BoT, the Standard Operating Procedures developed by Ad hoc Committees and/or the executive committees.
- Manage risks: assessing risks, managing risks and periodic audits.
- Develop and approve Communications Strategy and conduct external communications in conjunction with EC and review all external communications that have legal impact
- Make personnel decisions: Approval of any hiring, firing, resignation & compensation of fulltime employees and long term contractors, greater than 90 days, as proposed by Exec Committee
- Communicate regularly to all the members of GBT.
- Create standing committees as needed to address short term tasks/fixed duration tasks
- Appoint BoD Members or Trustees in good standing to EC sub-committees as per bylaws or up to a maximum of 2 per each sub-committee, including the EC
- Periodically get input from members of community to ensure the temple is meeting their needs.
- Set up policies and guidelines to accept at its discretion all gifts including religious items, bequests and donations, in cash or in kind, provided that any such gifts, bequests or donations, which the donor makes, are unrestricted. In case of restrictions, the BoD may reject the gift(s) if such restrictions are not in the best interests of the Corporation. Further, the wishes of any donor regarding the use of their donations shall, at the discretion of the BoD, be accepted and honored, to the extent possible as long as such wish does not conflict with the purposes of the Corporation – Any gift that had a perceived value of more than $5K and less than $50K need to be approved by the BoD. In-kind gifts that have a perceived value of more than $50K, BoD shall obtain approval from trustee with a simple majority.

- Borrow money and incur debt for the purposes of the Corporation and to execute instruments of hypothecation of assets with the advice of the President and the Executive Committee after approval of GBT.
- Maintain an alphabetically arranged list of all Trustees, Life Members and Annual Members. Such list shall be updated at least annually and shall be available for inspection by any BoD or GBT member.
- Make a report to the General Assembly at its annual meeting about the financial and operational status of the Corporation.
- Welcome new Trustees and inform them about their roles and responsibilities.

BoD shall have access to all the information of the corporation. If additional information is requested by BoD, the requested information needs to be provided within a reasonable amount of time of about seven calendar days, unless additional time is needed to gain such information. Details of the individual member/Trustee contributions must be considered private and sensitive. Such information will be available only to the Chairman of the GBT, the Secretary of BoD, the Treasurer and the President.

This information may be shared with others on a need-to-know basis and it requires BoD Approval

BoD acting alone cannot perform the following but not limited to the following tasks:

- Change approved master plan
- Change the vision of the AHTCC
- Change the Bylaws of the AHTCC
- Sell or lease any AHTCC assets.

However, the BoD can initiate action on any tasks identified above 4 items and obtain approval by GBT with a minimum of 51% majority.

BoD shall select a Public Relations (PR) person to represent the temple to communicate with outside organizations and media. The EC shall ensure that this person's contact information is prominently displayed on the temple's website. All external communications is the responsibility of the Chairman of BOD and the President of Executive Committee until the PR person is appointed.

BoD may appoint a Regulatory Committee headed by a BoD member with 4 other Trustees in good standing. The Chairman of this committee be replaced every two years but the members will remain unless they retire voluntarily and a new member is appointed by the chairman. General Responsibilities of this Committee includes but not limited to maintaining all Government related Regulatory Licenses, Process and Procedures and the following:

- 1) Non Profit Incorporation Certificate
- 2) IRS TAX filing reports
- 3) Audit Reports
- 4) Construction permits
- 5) Construction drawings and plans

Secretary:

The secretary shall keep the minutes of all the meetings of the General Body of Trustees and the meeting(s) of BoD, in books provided for that purpose. He/she shall attend to the giving and receiving of all legal notices of the Corporation and such other books and papers as the General Body of Trustees may direct. Such notices and minutes shall be open to examination of any GBT member(s) upon application at the office of the Corporation. Minutes of all the meetings of the BoD and General Body of Trustees shall be distributed to the GBT members within fifteen days after the meeting. The Chairperson and Secretary will be responsible for communication with GBT. In addition, the Secretary will be responsible to maintain the list of Trustees, and their eligibility to vote. The Secretary of the BOD is the Corporate Secretary.

Section 5.3 Meetings and Quorum:

BoD must conduct formal meetings at least once a month and each member shall not miss three meetings in a row or a total four meetings in a year. If a member of the BoD is unable to meet these attendance requirements without any valid reason(s), in any 12 month period, it shall be assumed that member has resigned from the BoD. BoD will nominate another candidate within 30 days of such resignation to fill this position, for GBT approval and in accordance with the quorum requirements set in Section 5.1.1. This should be an official meeting on the agreed day of the month. Any additional meetings or changes will require a two weeks' notice. Quorum needs a total of six members to be present in the official meeting and absentee members will need to communicate their votes in writing or by phone, of any items to be decided. BoD members shall excuse themselves from the voting if there is a conflict of interest. The members will have access to the relevant information and facilities to discharge the functions.

BoD meetings shall be open to trustees and the timing, location, and agenda shall be sent to trustees at least seven days prior to the meeting. The trustees in such meetings may choose to participate as observers. The chairman may conduct closed meetings to discuss sensitive topics or include an executive session in a regular BOD meeting. Such closed meetings and executive sessions may be restricted to BOD members and to any invitees that the BOD may require.

Section 5.4 Resignation, Removal and Replacements:

Any Board Member may resign at any time by delivering a written resignation to the Chairman. The acceptance of any such resignation shall be necessary to make the above resignation effective. The procedure for filling in the vacancies so created, is presented in Sec 5.5

Section 5.5 Vacancies:

A vacancy in any elected Board of Director, because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification or otherwise shall be filled by nominating an eligible candidate to the position by the Chairman of the Board within 14 days. This nomination needs to be recommended by simple majority of the BOD and shall have to be approved by a simple majority of the trustees (51%) or by a minimum of 40 trustees

Section 5.6 General Body of Trustees (GBT)

1. Members of the GBT will have all the rights of annual members and in addition, they have the right to elect the members of the BoD.
2. They will approve any proposals brought upon them by BoD and any projects that require a funding of $50,000 or more.
3. GBT members will approve the annual budget proposed by the EC and BoD
4. GBT can initiate any changes in Bylaws for approval in general assembly.
5. The GBT alone can authorize the sale or long term (exceeding a year) lease of AHTCC property (land and other fixed assets) with written approval from 75 % majority. GBT members will have access to the meeting minutes of BoD & Executive committee, and financial status of the corporation.
6. GBT meetings will be held at least once per quarter herein the Chairperson will present the progress, financial status and plans of the corporation.
7. The General Body of Trustees with two third majority of the trustees casting the votes, including proxies (with at least 50% of the total number of trustees approving the removal or replacement) can propose to remove, for reasons of any action against the policies or interest of the corporation, any Executive Committee member or the Executive Committee itself and call for general body meeting for approval and to elect new Executive Committee or an elected Executive Committee member. The General Body of Trustees can act as temporary Executive Committee or nominate other Trustees until new election is conducted within next 60 days.

8. The General Body of Trustees with two-third majority of the entire GBT can vote on to remove, for reasons of any action against the policies or interest of the corporation, the GBT chairman, any BoD member or the BoD itself and call for GBT meeting for approval and to elect new BoD or BoD member or GBT chairman for the remainder of the term.
